JOI Script for OnlyFans

A structured session you can run start to finish, and actually sell.

JOI works when it has a shape. Without one you run out of things to say in thirty seconds. This gives you a full session in beats: set the frame, control the pace, build, hold, and finish, with the sale placed where it feels like part of the experience. Keep it playful and in control. Fill in the [brackets] and adjust the pace to match the fan in front of you.

Beat 1: take control

Set the frame in the first line. You lead, he follows.

phone down, everything else off. for the next few minutes you're on my schedule, not yours. understood?

we're going to do this at my pace. you don't get to rush, and you don't get to stop until i say so.

Beat 2: set the pace start slow. i mean it. [pace cue]. you're not allowed to speed up just because you want to.

match me. when i say slower, you go slower. this is about doing it exactly how i tell you.

Beat 3: build and hold

Raise it, then make him wait. Tension is the product.

good. now a little faster... and stop. not yet. you'll thank me for making you wait.

you're doing so well. hold it right there for me. i decide when, not you.

Beat 4: the sell

Offer the full, unrestricted version as the payoff.

THE UPGRADE

i filmed the full version of this with zero holding back and no cut-offs. want me to guide you all the way through? it's in your unlocks.

Beat 5: the finish + aftercare okay. now you can. exactly the way i told you to.

good boy. that's what happens when you listen to me. same time tomorrow?
